4 Tonight

Call for Ideas on the Regeneration of Liskeard Buildings

An idea has come to the Forum for a community pub, come and find out how this project could benefit Liskeard, and how you could be involved?

Hella Tovar discusses her ambitions for Highwood House, (formally the Parade discounts store opposite the library) and asks residents for ideas on how the building could be used for the community. Come along and hear about this exciting regeneration project for Liskeard.

Foodbank and CAP

Christmas can put an extra strain on families, especially in these difficult financial times. Liskeard Foodbank will discuss their preparations for this Christmas, and what items are in desperate need to support Liskeard residents during the winter.

Details of the Foodbank's urgent needs can be found here:

<https://liskeardlooe.foodbank.org.uk/give-help/donate-food/>

A collection for the Foodbank will be available on the evening, and attendees may wish to bring a donation of food items.

Liskeard Traders Thoughts on Cattle Market

The Liskeard Town Traders Association present their thoughts and ideas on the cattle market redevelopment project.

This is an important project for the town, that will define Liskeard, and the high-street for the next fifty years. Come along and share your thoughts.

5 Grants

Liskeard Christians against poverty. CAP

Planning Matters

Any planning applications

From the Forum Members

If you have an event to promote or would like to suggest a future item for our next Programme, this is the time to raise it. If you would prefer to write in for someone else to announce it, please email us at info@liskeardforum.org.uk

Looking ahead

Liskeard Town Forum will be considering how it can support the environment over the next year.

Our 2020 meeting dates will be published next month.

The Forum does not meet during August or December.
